

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

ASX : CXO

3rd June 2015

Change of Company Contact Details

Core Exploration (ASX:CXO) advises that, in accordance with Listing Rule 3.14, the Company's office details will change as of 3 June 2015.

The relocation of Core's office will deliver a significant reduction in rent and is part of a broader process to reduce overhead costs across the Company. This includes a voluntary reduction in fees by Executive and Senior Management until market conditions improve.

Core has also recently been successful in applying for a South Australian GAP funding grant, which reimburses a substantial proportion of the costs of its field and project geologists.

In addition, Core has applied for and been successful in 2015, being awarded separate Federal, Territory and State co-funding for exploration and research programs undertaken by the Company and to contribute to cost effective, innovative exploration programs across a number of Core's projects.

The Company's contact details are listed below:

Registered office and principal place of business	26 Gray Court, Adelaide South Australia 5000
Telephone	+61 8 7324 2987 (unchanged)
Facsimile	no longer used
